Why Halkidiki?

Known for its natural beauty, clear waters, sandy beaches and lush landscapes, Halkidiki is one of the most popular conference venue destinations. Surrounded by quaint traditional villages and small fishing ports, Halkidiki also offers excellent quality hotels with a full range of facilities. The area is equipped with a high standard of transport, well maintained road systems and up to date telephone links. The area has hosted many large international

LOCATION

G-Hotels are situated in cosmopolitan Kassandra, the first peninsula of Halkidiki, known for many years as the secret paradise of Greece. Idyllic beaches with clear blue waters stretch as far as the eye can see. Pine forests, olive trees and vineyards make up its glorious landscape. Magnificent sunsets and breathtaking views complete the rich natural beauty of G-hotels.

ACCESSIBILITY

Its accessibility has been made easy through a new network of roads. Only 85 km from Thessaloniki centre, the second largest city in Greece and 60 km from its international airport, arriving at Halkidiki has been made fast and simple. The average travelling time from the airport is 40 - 45 minutes.

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS & PLACES OF INTEREST

G-Hotels is an ideal base from which to explore. There are traditional fishing villages such as the village of Nea Fokea with its Byzantine tower on the waterfront and the attractive old village of Athytos. The natural hot springs of Agia Paraskevi which are used to treat a number of illnesses, archaeological sites such as the Cave of Petralona with paleontological interest where a human skull of Neanderthal type man was found, and a plethora of cultural events. The Greek Orthodox monasteries of Mount Athos and the city of Thessaloniki has itself thousands of years of history and interest.
